2026 INTERNATIONAL GEN-Z WEEK TOUR OF THE PEONY CITY

Application Deadline: March 15, 2026

About Luoyang

Luoyang, a prefecture-level city in Henan Province, is a UNESCO World Cultural Heritage City and one of China's first National Historical and Cultural Cities. Historically, a total of 13 dynasties established their capitals here. It is the city in China where the capital establishment started earliest, lasted the longest time and had the largest number of dynasties. Its key highlights include:

- History of over 5,000 years of civilization, over 4,000 years of city establishment, and over 1,500 years as an ancient imperial capital.
- World cultural heritage sites: Longmen Grottoes, the Grand Canal, and the Silk Road. Five ancient capital ruins: Erlitou Site of Xia Capital, Yanshi Shang City Site, Eastern Zhou Imperial City Site, Han-Wei Luoyang City Site, and Sui-Tang Luoyang City Site.

About the Program
